

Staff Pages and Blog

1. Log in to SOCS from the front page or sub-page.

You will be brought to your Main Staff Page. This article was pre-populated with your personal information when your user account was added.

Your staff section is also prepopulated with a Return to Site article. You will not need to edit the Return to Site article which exists to provide navigation back to the Home/Front Page of your staff section.

Editing your Staff Home Page

Your main staff page is pre-populated with the Personal Information from your User Profile when your user account was created.

To make changes to your home page edit your User Profile. Select the Return to Site link from your staff page navigation. The Return to Site link will take you the section page where your staff pages reside.

Select your name at the top left corner of the toolbar. Any changes you make to your information will be updated on your main staff page.

Note: You may also edit the article if you prefer.

You can choose to use one of the staff page templates to assist you in creating new staff pages. To insert a staff page template follow these easy steps:

1. On the Editor toolbar, select Insert, Staff Page Template.

2. Select one of the Main Staff Page Templates from the drop down. Select Insert to add the contents into the article.

3. Continue to edit your article as needed.

Staff Blog

Staff Blog displays just like a section within SOCS. If you have multiple blog articles, the first five will display in full.

Creating a Staff Blog

Select My Blog from your staff page navigation. Select the Create New Article icon on the right side.

Note: If you don't want a Blog or My Blog is missing from your staff page navigation, contact your Site Champion and they can remove or add the option for you.

Monitoring feedback:

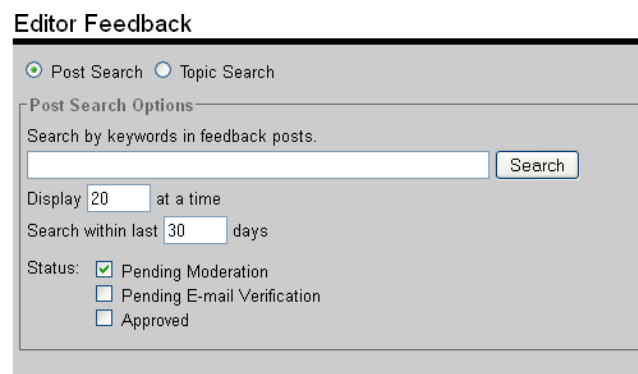

Viewers of your blog can submit feedback. You will receive an email when feedback has been submitted. There are two ways to post the feedback to your blog:

- Respond to the Approve or Reject links within the Feedback email.
- Select Return to Site from the navigation and select Content, Articles from the toolbar.

1. At the Articles Menu, select My Feedback.

2. You will receive the Manage Feedback search window. Select the search button to see your feedback.

A screenshot of the 'Editor Feedback' search window. At the top, there are radio buttons for 'Post Search' (selected) and 'Topic Search'. Below this is a section titled 'Post Search Options' with a description 'Search by keywords in feedback posts.' and a search input field with a 'Search' button. Further down, there are input fields for 'Display 20 at a time' and 'Search within last 30 days'. At the bottom, there are checkboxes for 'Status': 'Pending Moderation' (checked), 'Pending E-mail Verification', and 'Approved'.
